

Impact Analysis Statement

Summary IAS

Details

Lead department	Department of the Premier and Cabinet
Name of the proposal	Statutory Instruments (Exemptions from Expiry) Amendment Regulation 2024
Submission type (Summary IAS / Consultation IAS / Decision IAS)	Summary IAS
Title of related legislative or regulatory instrument	Statutory Instruments (Exemptions from Expiry) Amendment Regulation 2024
Date of issue	July 2024

For proposals noted in table below

No further analysis is required.

Proposal type	Details
Minor and machinery in nature	The proposal to exempt expiring subordinate legislation in accordance with s 56A of the Statutory Instruments Act 1992 is machinery in nature and does not change regulatory policy or impose new impacts on business, government or the community. As a result, the Department of the Premier and Cabinet has determined that no further regulatory impact analysis is required.

 Mike Kaiser
 Director-General
 Department of the Premier and Cabinet

Date: 29/7/24

 Steven Miles MP
 Premier
 Date: 29/7/24