

Department of the Premier and Cabinet
Governance and Engagement Division

SECTION: Protocol and International Engagement NUMBER: GES.PRO.013

SUBJECT: Appointment of Honorary
Consuls in Queensland AUTHORISED:

1. Purpose

1.1 This document outlines the Queensland Government's policy and procedures in relation to the appointment of Honorary Consuls in this State.

2. Scope

2.1 This policy applies to those persons nominated for appointment as an Honorary Consul with jurisdiction within Queensland whether or not the consular post they are to head is based in Queensland or interstate.

3. Definitions

3.1 "Honorary Consul" refers to the locally engaged representative of a foreign government who has been appointed to head a consular post. Such representatives are usually Australian citizens or permanent residents of this country and not career officers of the foreign government. The levels of honorary consul include Honorary Consul-General, Honorary Consul, Honorary Vice-Consul and Honorary Consular Agent.

3.2 "Consular Post" refers to the office where the consular business of the foreign government is carried out. The various levels of consular post are - Consulate-General; Consulate; Vice-Consulate and Consular Agency.

4. Guidelines

4.1 The selection and nomination of a person for the position of an Honorary Consul in this State is the responsibility of the foreign government concerned.

4.2 The appointment or rejection of a person nominated as an Honorary Consul is the prerogative of the Commonwealth Government. In reaching its decision on such nomination, the Commonwealth Government relies, to a certain extent, on the advice of the State Government concerned.

4.3 For its part, the Queensland Government must be satisfied that any person appointed as an Honorary Consul with jurisdiction in this State is a well-respected and law-abiding member of the community. Such caution is warranted when it is considered that appointment as an Honorary Consul provides the office holder with direct access to government officials and other persons in positions of power and influence as well as entrée to many official functions and ceremonies. Any concerns the Queensland Government might have about the suitability of a nominee should be conveyed to the Commonwealth Government.

4.4 Background checks are to be undertaken into the suitability of each nominee. These checks include -

- Queensland Courts (searches of the Supreme Court registry, District Court registry and Magistrates Court registry)
- Department of Environment and Science (portfolio responsibilities include Multicultural Affairs).
- Government Research and Information Library, State Library of Queensland (due diligence search i.e.: bankruptcy directorship search, media and other public reports).

Checks are also undertaken by the Commonwealth Government into the police and criminal records of the proposed Honorary Consul.

5. Responsibilities

5.1 The Director, Protocol and International Engagement, Department of the Premier and Cabinet (DPC), is responsible for the implementation of this policy and for all matters associated with the appointment of Honorary Consuls.

6. Procedures

6.1 The head of the relevant Embassy or High Commission in Australia writes to the Department of Foreign Affairs (DFAT) advising that the government of the country concerned is in the process of appointing an Honorary Consul.

6.2 DFAT, provides application documentation including the Queensland Government Department of the Premier and Cabinet – Privacy Statement and Consent form for completion (Attachment 1).

6.3 DFAT writes to Protocol and International Engagement advising the name of the nominee together with a CV of the nominee and a release form (Attachment 1) signed by the nominee authorising that relevant background checks can be undertaken by Protocol and International Engagement.

6.4 Protocol and International Engagement initiates a number of background checks (as listed in 4.4) on the individual's background and these are collated to determine a position.

6.5 An email is then prepared from Director Protocol and International Engagement DPC to the DFAT – Diplomatic and Consular Accreditation Section advising whether Queensland will give support or otherwise to the nomination.

6.6 Any unfavourable findings from the background checks obtained by Protocol and International Engagement are not shared with third parties, namely DFAT.

6.7 Should the background checks produce unfavourable findings, Queensland Government's position, through Protocol and International Engagement, will be to propose that DFAT undertakes their own independent searches.

All enquiries regarding the appointment of Honorary Consuls should be directed to:
